I legit thought this was a photo shoot and had to do a double take after initially looking at these beyond.gorgeous images by Jessica Lorren Organic Photography. I mean seriously, does it get any prettier or more romantic than this elopement in Tuscany? I don't think so! I don't know about you, but if I could do it all over again, I'd want it to be just like this. Click here for even more gorgeousness!

From the Bride... Johnny and I love the romance, the simplicity and rustic beauty of Tuscany — it was always our place to breathe, to find quiet and focus on each other. So it was only natural that we chose one of our favorite tucked-away villages, Poppi, as the location for our wedding. We decided for a private ceremony for just the two of us at a beautiful venue surrounded by tranquil gardens, traditional old Italian villas and views of the countryside. Each moment of the day was truly about each other — from the anticipation of getting ready and the first look, to the simple outdoor ceremony, the romantic strolls around the gardens and quiet dinner at the end of the day. We were so delighted with every aspect, but especially how, looking back, the memories are so relaxed, so natural, so full of romance and fun — and so “us.”
